Abraham Enloes was the son of Abraham Enloes and Elizabeth. He was a grandson of Hendrick and Christiana Enloes. His mother married second John Ensor ca. 1710, as her husband had died in 1709 and she had a son, John Ensor Jr. in 1711. In 1733, Abraham Enloes leased Lot #50 on Lord Baltimore's Gunpowder Manor which consisted of 100 acres and may have been called at that time "Enloe's Last Shift." In 1743, he leased another 41 acres on the Gunpowder Manor known at the time as "Abraham's Desire." In the Maryland resurvey of the manor, these two leases were known as "Enloe's Last Shift" (1785). Both leases were made for the lifetime of his wife, Mary, age 55 (in 1767) and son, Benjamin Enloes, age 28 (in 1767) although the second lease showed Mary's age as 56 (in 1767). Benjamin was actually born 19 Jan. 1738/39 so the 1767 survey was correct on his age. Abraham Enloes died intestate between July and August of 1758. His wife Mary Deason Enloes administered the estate per Baltimore County Administration Accounts Liber 6, f. 244. The account states that the deceased left ten children. Except for four of these children, whose births were recorded in St. John's & St. George's Parish, the "ten" children have had to be guessed at from other records. The first child of Abraham Enloes and Mary, according to the church records was Anthony, born in 1731. However, this son may have died in infancy since Benjamin Enloes is shown as Abraham's heir in his lease of Lot #50 of the Gunpowder Manor in 1733.

MARY3 DEASON (WILLIAM2, WILLIAM1). She married ABRAHAM ENLOES 1730 in Baltimore Co. Maryland, USA.

Notes for MARY DEASON:

BIOGRAPHY

Mary Deason, daughter of William and Mary, was born ca. 1711/12 in Baltimore Co. She married Abraham Enloes, another lessee of Gunpowder Manor, in 1730 in St. John's Parish. Abraham Enloes was the son of Abraham Enloes and Elizabeth. He was a grandson of Hendrick and Christiana Enloes. His mother married second John Ensor ca. 1710, as her husband had died in 1709 and she had a son, John Ensor Jr. in 1711. In 1733, Abraham Enloes leased Lot #50 on Lord Baltimore's Gunpowder Manor which consisted of 100 acres and may have been called at that time "Enloe's Last Shift." In 1743, he leased another 41 acres on the Gunpowder Manor known at the time as "Abraham's Desire." In the Maryland, USA resurvey of the manor, these two leases were known as "Enloe's Last Shift" (1785). Both leases were made for the lifetime of his wife, Mary, age 55 (in 1767) and son, Benjamin Enloes, age 28 (in 1767) although the second lease showed Mary's age as 56 (in 1767).

Benjamin was actually born 19 Jan. 1738/39 so the 1767 survey was correct on his age. Abraham Enloes died intestate between July and August of 1758. His wife Mary Deason Enloes administered the estate per Baltimore County Administration Accounts Liber 6, f. 244. The account states that the deceased left ten children. Except for four of these children, whose births were recorded in St. John's & St. George's Parish, the "ten" children have had to be guessed at from other records. The first child of Abraham Enloes and Mary according to the church records was Anthony, born in 1731. However, this son may have died in infancy since Benjamin Enloes is shown as Abraham's heir in his lease of Lot #50 of the Gunpowder Manor in 1733. (Note: Benjamin, born in 1738/39, was probably added to the lease at a later date since he was not alive when his father first leased the property in 1733. Thomas Enloes is shown on most lists of genealogists as a son of Abraham with the speculation he was born ca. 1729. This date, of course, could mean he was born before the marriage of Abraham and Mary. Also, there is no proof that Abraham Enloes and Henry Enloes who married the Elliott sisters were sons of Abraham and Mary but it is most likely that they were. You might say that the speculations were based on people who were in the right place, at the right time, and supported by church records in one way or another to be considered children of Abraham and Mary Deason Enloes. Sometime after her husband's death in 1758, Mary Enloes probably joined her Deason relatives in York County, South Carolina, USA. She left a will there and one source said she died in 1774 while another said, 1789. She only named directly one child in her will as a daughter: Christen, or Christiana. The children of Abraham Enloes and Mary Deason accepted thus far:

- (1) Thomas Enloes (b. ca. 1729) m. Sarah James (b. 10 Feb. 1733, daughter of William) 2 June 1754.
- (2) Anthony Enloes b. August, 1731. No other info.
- (3) Abraham Enloes b. ca. 1733, m. Jemima Elliott (b. 30 Nov. 1738, daughter of James Elliott and Mary Wickes) 28 Nov. 1754, d. 1808 Washington Co. Pennsylvania, USA.
- (4) Avarilla Enloes b. 1734 m. Robert Garner 3 May 1757 (Note: the record shows Robert Gardener).
- (5) Benjamin Enloes b. 19 Jan. 1738/39 d. prob. South Carolina, USA. No other info.
- (6) Sarah Enloes b. 16 Feb. 1740. 7) Henry Enloes b. ? d. 1828 Kentucky, m. Mary Elliott (b. 24 May 1744, daughter of James and Mary) 26 May 1763.
- (8) Enoch Enloes b. ca. 1741 d. 1799 York Co. South Carolina, USA. 1) _ Spruseband; 2) Jane McCord.
- (9) Isaac Enloes b. 13 Feb. 1745 (Enloes Bible) d. 1819 York Co. South Carolina, USA, m. Violet Porter.
- (10) Deason Enloes. No other info.
- (11) Christen Enloes (in mother's will).
- (12) Potter Enloes. No other info.
- (13) John Enloes. No other info.

The final account of Abraham Enloes' estate in 1758 in Baltimore Co. not only shows his wife, Mary Deason Enloes as his administratrix but shows the appraisers of the estate to be William Ensor and James Elliott. James Elliott was the father of Jemima and Mary Elliott who married respectively Abraham Enloes and Henry Enloes, supposed sons of Abraham Enloes and Mary Deason Enloes. The fact that James Elliott appraised the estate of Abraham Enloes adds a bit of support to the supposition that James Elliott was the father of Jem' a and Mary Elliott. Also of interest is that William Ensor Sr. was security for William Ensor Jr. and Charles Deason as shown on the Baltimore Co. Tax List of 1773 for Gunpowder Upper Hundred. The only Deasons in Baltimore Co. as late as 1773 seem to be Enoch Deason and this Charles Deason. Mary Deason Enloes, as Mary Enlow, left a will in York Co. South Carolina, USA which, according to Col. Thomas A. Enloe (now deceased), was probated Feb. 1789. South Carolina, USA Wills. an index compiled by Martha Lou Houston, (originally published in 1939), reprinted by Genealogical Publishing Co. Baltimore, 1970, shows the will may be found as part of the collections of the University of South Carolina, USA Library, Columbia, South Carolina, USA (1939). The reference is given as Vol. 1, date 1770-1815, p. 3. Her will referred to a daughter, Christen, or Christiana, and "to burial at the discretion of my children."

Children of MARY DEASON and ABRAHAM ENLOES are:

Abraham ENLOW III

About 1775 Abraham emigrated from Maryland, USA to Washington Co, Pennsylvania, USA where he erected a fort (known as Enlow's Blockhouse) for protection from the Indians. He also built the Enlow Chapel where the Stoney Creek Church is now located. [Some info submitted to LDS Ancestral File by Lester P. Trusty 217 Main St. Huntingburg, Indiana, USA47542]

Raymond Bell's article states:

Abraham Enlow (sometimes spelled Inlow) settled in what is now East Finley Township, Washington Co, Pennsylvania, USA, coming from Maryland, USA in 1773, according to his Virginia certificates.

Beers states he patented 3,000 acres in the wilderness and lived there until he died, when the land was divided among the children, each of whom settled on their respective farms and made improvements. On April 25, 1781, there were three Enlow applications for Virginia certificates for land on the main fork of Big Wheeling Creek: Abraham Enlow, 400 acres, settlement made in 1773; Abraham Enlow, (assignee of Charles Creacraft), 400 acres, settled 1773; James Enlow, 400 acres, settled 1775.

These certificates were granted by Virginia as a result of the settlement of the boundary dispute between Virginia and Pennsylvania, USA. The western boundary was uncertain. Abraham did not use the certificates in getting his land, possibly because they were dated a month after the formation of Washington Co, Pennsylvania, USA. Before that time Ohio Co, Virginia, USA had jurisdiction. James was most likely a brother - there is no further record of him.

When Abraham's land was surveyed by Pennsylvania, USA in 1788 it was called "Big Flat". Eventually he was granted nearly 900 acres and son Luke 400 acres. Abraham sold some land to sons, Elliott and Michael, and willed land to sons, Henry and William. Four other sons went to Kentucky.

When Abraham came to Washington County, his oldest son, Luke, was about 18. The first record of Abraham is his listing in the court records of the District of West Augusta (Virginia, USA, later Ohio Co, now Washington Co, Pennsylvania, USA), when he was named a commissioner on 18 Sep 1776. With the outbreak of Indian attacks in 1777, Abraham built a blockhouse for protection. There is record of his oldest son, Luke, as a lieutenant in the Ohio Co Militia 1778 [Ohio Co Court Records], and of his third son, Elliott, as a ranger on the frontier about 1782 [Pennsylvania, USA Archives]. Abraham Jr was an Indian spy and militia captain 1786-88. The names of Abraham Sr. and Abraham Jr. appear in a 1782 petition for a new state.

The first tax list (1782) shows Abraham with 600 acres, 3 horses, 4 cows and 9 sheep. Luke is taxed for 200 acres, 1 horse, 1 cow. This was Donegal Township until 1788 when Finley Township was set off. In 1789 Abraham had 400 a, Luke 200, Abraham Jr. 200 and Elliott 100. In 1791 Jesse is listed as a freeman and the name crossed out. The last listing for Abraham is for land in 1792. He may have been a non-resident. In 1793 Abraham Sr. had 700 a, Luke 240 and Elliott 100.

The 1790 census shows Abraham Sr. with 1 male over 16, 3 under 16 and four females. For both Luke and Elliott it is 1 2 2. The estate papers for Abraham, who died in 1808, list 9 sons, all living: Luke, Abraham, Elliott, Isom, James, Jesse, Henry, Michael, William. There were five daughters. Rebecca Linch was dead in 1808. The others were Mary wife of Jeremiah Post, Jemima wife of James St Clair, Sarah wife of George Wolff and Rachel wife of Thomas Hill.

Abraham Sr. Married in Baltimore County, Maryland, USA November 28-1754 Jemima Elliott. He was 25 and she was about 17. Henry Enlow, possibly a brother, married May 26-1763 Mary Elliott. Henry may have gone to Kentucky. The family had Quaker connections: (1) they "affirmed" in legal matters; (2) Luke's son, James, became a Quaker for his marriage; (3) some of the family are buried in the nearby Quaker cemetery at Pleasant Grove. A Quaker meeting house was built here in 1797. It was also used as a school. The England and Elliott neighbors were active Quakers. So were the Vanscyocs.

In 1810 the East Wheeling Circuit was formed in the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. About 1815 preaching services began at Luke Enlow's. After his death in 1822 the services were held at his brother, Elliott's. In 1830 a church was built, which became known as Enlow's Meeting House. In 1833 there were 48 members; in 1859 [sic] 49. This church later (about 1855) became Stony Point Church and was active until the 1970s. The church deed was given in 1863 by John Enlow, son of Elliott.

Of the nine sons four stayed in Washington County. Their death dates are Luke 1822, William 1826, Henry 1838 and Elliott 1848. Michael moved to Monroe County, Ohio, USA about 1809, where he died in 1855. Abraham, Isom, James and Jesse went to Kentucky about 1790. Their marriage dates there are Isom and James 1792, Abraham 1794, Jesse 1795. Isom was a squire in Kentucky, Henry in Pennsylvania, USA. Isom Enlow was a neighbor of Thomas Lincoln (father of Abraham) in (then) Hardin County. In 1814 they were appraisers for the estate of Jonathan Joseph. The names of Isom, wife Mary and son Abraham have often been associated with the birth of Abraham Lincoln in 1809.

Jesse moved on to Montgomery County, Indiana, USA, where he died in 1842. James died in Fleming County, Kentucky in 1844. Isom died in Hardin (now Larue) County in 1816, Abraham in 1839. Buried beside James is Henry 1740-1828, possibly an uncle of James.

Abrahams' will is available in Washington Co, Pennsylvania, USA, Will Book 2, p. 181, probated 1808.

Early Settlements. ---Abraham Enlow was among the first of the settlers in what is now East Finley township. There is little doubt that he was here as early as 1775. He settled on Wheeling Creek, where he built a block-house for the protection of himself and family from the Indians. His first land purchase was of a tract containing four hundred acres, called "Big Flat," situated on the waters of Big Wheeling Creek, which was granted to him Feb. 21, 1788, and surveyed March 30th following. On March 26, 1788, "Sugar Stick Run," a tract of three hundred and ninety-one acres, was warranted to him, and surveyed April 26th of the same year. Again, in 1790, he received a warrant for one hundred acres of land, which was not surveyed until June 9, 1799. Abraham Enlow's sons were five, ---Elliott, Luke, Henry, William, and Michael. His daughters, four in number, were Mrs. Thomas Hill, Mrs. James St. Clair, Mrs. Wolf, and Mrs. Jeremiah Post. Michael Enlow married and emigrated to Monroe County, Ohio, USA; Elliott Enlow married a Miss Atchison, and they had a large family of children. Their sons were three, ---Henry, John, and Gideon.

Luke, second son of Abraham Enlow, married and died near where he was born, leaving a large family, six sons and three daughters. All except Ruth, who married John Montgomery, emigrated to Ohio, Indiana, USA, and Illinois. William Enlow, another of Abraham's sons, married a Miss Wolf, who died in this township a quarter of a century ago. They had four children, ---Abraham, Elliott, Luke, and Peter. Abraham, Jr., and Peter emigrated to Ohio, and Luke Enlow, Jr., died in Washington County. Of this branch of the Enlow family, Elliott, Jr., is the only one now living. He still owns a part of the old homestead, and another portion is the property of William McCleary.

Henry Enlow was one of Abraham Enlow's sons, and may be termed one of the original settlers, as he was one of the oldest children. He married a Miss Atchison. Of his numerous family the sons all emigrated to Ohio, and the daughters married and died in Washington County. From Ruth Enlow, daughter of Luke, and granddaughter of old Abraham Enlow, have sprung a numerous family. She married Hugh Montgomery, son of James Montgomery, who, Oct. 21, 1784, warranted the tract of land called "Tragical," containing four hundred acres, situated on the Robinson Fork of Wheeling Creek, and which was surveyed to him Dec. 30, 1784. Hugh and Ruth Montgomery had eleven children. James, the eldest, went to Ohio; John settled in East Finley township and died here; William resides in Washington borough, where he has for several years been a justice of the peace, and is at present proprietor of a hardware-store; Jesse died in this county; Alexander resides in this township on the old Montgomery homestead; and Cyrus lives on an adjoining farm. The daughter, Susan Montgomery, married John Thornberry; Annie was the wife of William A. Sprowls; Rebecca became Mrs. Martin Post; Mary married Simeon Sprowls; and Phebe, who married Henry Martin, resides in Ohio.

Here's all I know to date concerning the Robert Gardner that I posted previously. I am unsure as to how it may connect with you. An interesting note: Mary Deason and Abraham Enloes also had a daughter named Sarah, of whom I am still attempting to research with regard to her marriage/s. I mention this only in response to your Robert Gardner's link to Sally, surname unknown.

Abarillo Enloes was born in Baltimore County, Maryland, USA on May 5, 1735 and she died in 1792 in York County, South Carolina, USA at 57 years of age. St. John Parish records, Baltimore County, Maryland, USA give her birth year as 1734. (Index to Register of St. John Parish 1696-1788, Hall of Records, #1063.52, 75 R.); St. John and St. George Parish Registers, Baltimore and Harford Counties, 1696-1851, Henry C. Peden, Jr., 1987, Family Line Publication, Silver Spring, Maryland, USA, record page 100. She was the daughter of Abraham Enloes and Mary Deason and sister of Benjamin Enlow. Her name has been spelled in a variety of ways including Ambrello and Ambrella.\

She married Robert Gardener on May 3, 1757 in Maryland, USA. Spelled as Avarilla; Index to Register of St. John Parish 1696-1788, Hall of Records, #1063.52, 49; Maryland, USA Marriages 1634-1777, compiled by Robert Barnes, Genealogical Publishing Company, Incorporated, Baltimore, Maryland, 1978, page 67; St. John and St. George Parish Registers, Baltimore and Harford Counties, 1696-1851, Henry C. Peden, Jr., 1987, Family Line Publication, Silver Spring, Maryland, record page 215.\

On July 3, 1764, Benjamin Enlow petitioned for 300 acres on the waters of Lynches Creek. It is unknown as to whether he received this land, as Benjamin's brother-in-law, Robert Gardner, also applied for the same tract. Following the death of Abraham around July or August of 1758, his wife, Mary, and many of their children migrated to York County, South Carolina, USA to join her Deason relatives.

Their son, Deason Enloes, enlisted in the Revolutionary War for the 3rd South Carolina, USA Regiment as a Private on July 7, 1782 under Captain Joseph Wharley, commanded by Colonel William Thomson. He was discharged following twelve months of service on July 8, 1783. Deason applied for a pension on June 24, 1818 while living in Richland District of South Carolina, USA. His son, Jacob, made an affidavit on July 29, 1853 from Greenville District of South Carolina. Deason received £16 6 shillings 8 pence Sterling for his service.
