Elliott Enlow, Civil War veteran and former resident of Claysville, died at the home of his son, Edward Enlow, at Crafton, Pennsylvania, USA., Tuesday morning, Nov. 18, 1919, of pneumonia, after a brief illness, aged 84 years. The remains were brought to Claysville with the escort of the funeral party on Thursday, and service were held in the M.E. church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J.W. Garland. The interment was in Claysville cemetery. Mr. Enlow was a native of Indiana, USA and in the Civil war served in Company D., Fourth Indiana, USA Cavalry. He was married twice. Of the first marriage three sons survive: Charles Enlow, in Texas; Edward Enlow, of Crafton, and B.C. Enlow, at Bellevernon. At Murdock, Ill, Jan. 5, 1893, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Ellen Enlow, nee Howell, whose deceased husband, also bore the same name as her second husband. He came to East Finley and located near, Stony Point 28 years ago. For a number of years, he resided on Petroleum avenue, where Mrs. Enlow died. He resided for some time at Donors, only recently going to Crafton. He was a member of Patterson Jones Post 555, G.A.R. He was a member of Stony Point M.E. church and later of Claysville, M.E. church. He leaves two brothers, Henry Enlow, in California, and J.I. Enlow, of Terra Haute, Ind.

Notes (con't)

1880 Pennsylvania, USA Census has his mother-in-law (Margaret Howell) living with them, her age was 94 in 1880. Also two other people (Alexander Redmond (age 25) and Elizabeth Russel (age 15) were living with them at the time of the census.

NOTE from Len Enlow: The unit he was in is: "4th Regiment Indiana Calvary (77th Infantry)

Ellen Ann OVERMAN

On Elliott's pension request (Mar 16 1915) he lists his wife as Ellen Enlow (maiden Ellen Howell) and that he was married before to a Ellen A. Mitchell and her maiden name was Ellen A. Overman. Therefore she was Ellen A. Overman Mitchell before marrying Elliott. (Len Enlow has a copy of the pension)

ST. CLAIR CEMETERY BURIALS, Monroe Township, Clark County, Indiana, USA

The following is from the introduction to an extensive index found at the Charlestown Library of burials at St. Clair Cemetery in Monroe Township: "The cemetery is located three miles east of Henryville, Indiana, USA, on State Route 39 [now Highway 160], on a farm formerly owned by James St. Clair's grandfather [later owned by Earl Munk]. [The index was] copied in 1954, and donated by James St. Clair."

ELEANOR "ELLEN ANN" OVERMAN - daughter of Samuel C. Overman and Mary Ann (Campbell), was born 28 Mar 1841 in Clark Co., Indiana. Her mother died when she was about six years old and when his father married Hannah Harris, the children from his first marriage seemed to have stayed with their maternal grandmother, Mary Campbell. In 1860 Ellen is not listed in her father's household in Camargo, Illinois nor in her grandmother's household, but may be the same Ellen Overman who is listed as age 19 residing in the John Boyer household in Charlestown working as a domestic.

She married James Mitchell on 05 Mar 1861 who may have served and died in the Civil War. It's possible he was the James Mitchell located in the 1860 census residing in Henryville, Monroe Twp., born about 1838 and working as a carpenter in the household of James and Mary Ryan. Nothing further is known of James Mitchell, but on 21 Dec 1865 Ellen married Elliott Enlow, a grocer, who was born 15 May 1837 in Clark Co., Indiana. They appeared in the 1870 census with one son Charles, and in 1880 with three sons although they appear to have other children who died in their infancy (Fannie & Joseph, Gideon, Jesse).

Ellen died on 13 Dec 1891 and is believed to be buried in St. Clair Cemetery in Henryville, Clark Co., Indiana. On 05 Jan 1893 he married the widow Ellen (Howell) who was then listed with him in the 1900 in East Finley Twp., Washington Co., Pennsylvania, USA and in 1910 residing in Claysville Borough, Washington Co., PA census records. He died 18 Nov 1919 and was laid to rest at Claysville Cemetery.
